

Dependable Rail in 2016: What Will it Mean for the Knowledge Corridor Region?

A Breakfast Forum

The New Haven-Hartford-Springfield Rail Project will connect Hartford and Springfield to new business, educational, and cultural opportunities along the Knowledge Corridor, and in Southwestern Connecticut and New York City. What are these opportunities, and what should we do to maximize them? We'll hear from local business leaders as well as representatives from other successful rail corridors on how we can best leverage state and federal rail investments for economic growth.

Friday, June 3, 8 am- 10 am
